EAST COAST TOUR - October 13-17, 2020

If you are age 50 or above, married or single, plan now to join us as we travel to Pennsylvania to visit many historic sites including Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, and Valley Forge. We'll go up into New York and visit the 9/11 Memorial and Museum. Then we'll head West to visit the heartland of the Amish Country in Lancaster County and enjoy a play.

Please note this tour involves a considerable amount of walking, including stairs.

Our Itinerary:

Tuesday, October 13th: At 6:45 AM we will meet at John Wayne International airport for our group airline check-in on American Airlines to Philadelphia, stopping briefly in Dallas for a connection. Upon arrival in Philadelphia we will board our motorcoach to our hotel, Courtyard Philadelphia Plymouth Meeting, stopping for dinner along the way.

Wednesday, October 14th: After our breakfast buffet and devotions, we will be transported to Independence Hall for a group tour followed by a do-it-yourself visit to all the surrounding sites and grab lunch on our own. That afternoon we'll reboard our tour bus and drive over to Valley Forge where we'll be met by a tour guide who will board our bus for a descriptive tour of the famous Revolutionary War battleground. After that, we'll head out for dinner and back to our hotel.

Thursday, October 15th: Today after breakfast and devotions, we will motor up to New York, to Lower Manhattan for our visit to the 9/11 Memorial and Museum located in a prime tourist area for exploring. When we're finished, we'll be driven past many of the favorite and well-known sights of New York. On our way back to our hotel that evening, we'll be stopping for dinner along the way.

Friday, October 16th: Following breakfast and devotions this morning, we'll board our motorcoach for a scenic drive up into Lancaster County, one of the notable areas known as Amish Country, and tour various locations throughout. After dinner, we'll be attending the Sight and Sound production of "Queen Esther" and taken back to our hotel afterward.

Saturday, October 17th: After breakfast and devotions we'll be heading back to Philadelphia International Airport for our return flights to Orange County, stopping briefly in Phoenix for our final connection, and arrive back in Orange County at 6:30 PM.
