

WORSHIP MINISTRY

Vision + Mission

MISSION

To cultivate a community of unique and creative individuals who live, worship, grow, and create together as one voice—yielded to the Holy Spirit and fully engaged as citizens and heirs of the Kingdom of God.

OBJECTIVES

Cultivate Christ-focused musicians who are confident in their giftings and live lives that honor God both on and off the platform. We commit to developing the people in our community both as musicians and Christ-followers through providing resources, training, instruction, and regular communication.

Create songs and music that tell the story of God, both ancient and present, from the perspective of our local church body. Our mission is to write, record, and release songs out of honesty and authenticity with our eyes always fixed on Jesus.

Gather in community to regularly pray, care for, and do life with one another. We commit to facilitating monthly community events that make space for connection, belonging, creativity, and growth.

Care for the musicians, artists, and creatives in our church as they grow in their spiritual, emotional, relational, and physical well-being. Our aim is to make sure every person connected to our ministry feels known and seen on a personal level through individual counsel, accountability, and investment.

Lead the community of believers at CCCM into the presence of God with a heart posture of Spirit-yielded humility. Through words of encouragement and song, our aim is to give language to the prayers and lament of the people in our church and provide a space for honest worship and praise to God.

WORSHIP MINISTRY

Expectations + Protocol

WELCOME

We're so excited for you to be a part of the Worship Ministry at CCCM. We are grateful for the unique person you are and the gifts and abilities you contribute to our church and ministry. Our goal is to see you flourish as an individual and an artist and see you championed and stewarded in your life and calling.

EXPECTATIONS

We take seriously the role we have been given to lead our congregation into worship and display the Way of Jesus in our day-to-day life. Our expectation is that those who are part of our ministry would fulfill the following requirements:

- Demonstrate a life and attitude that is consistent with biblical principles.
- Be personally committed to believing and living out the Way of Jesus.
- Wholeheartedly support the mission, values, and goals of CCCM.
- Commit to being a faithful, active member of our church.
- Adequately prepare, both musically and spiritually, for scheduled services.
- Commit to showing up to rehearsals and scheduled services on time.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Those who are part of our ministry must adhere to and support the following principles:

- Abstain from serving, using, and advocating the use of alcohol and tobacco products online, including all forms of social media.
- Not engage in the use, possession, or distribution of marijuana or illegal/unauthorized drugs.
- Refrain from all sexual activity and romantic relationships not in agreement with the Bible's teaching including, but not limited to, premarital and extramarital sex, adultery, homosexual acts, and the use of pornography.
- Give equal and fair treatment to every person on the team, leader or otherwise, and treat fellow band members with honor and respect.

SCHEDULING CONFLICTS + BLOCK OUT DAYS

If you have date(s) you would not be willing to participate in or be available for, we encourage you to log in to your personal Planning Center account and input any applicable block out days. In the event that you are scheduled for a weekend you aren't able to make for any reason, you can simply decline the planning center request. As a note, it is encouraged that you either accept or decline a planning center request as soon as you see it so that your leader can respond accordingly.
